The Committee of 100 (C100) is a non-partisan leadership organization of prominent Chinese Americans in business, government, academia, and the arts. A non-profit institution founded by world renowned architect I.M. Pei, and internationally acclaimed cellist Yo-Yo Ma, among others, U.S. citizens are invited to join based on their extraordinary achievements. For over a quarter century, C100 has served as the preeminent organization committed to the twin missions of promoting the full participation of Chinese Americans in all aspects of American life, and encouraging constructive relations between the peoples of the United States and Greater China.
